Hale House, 1 Parliament Tce West Perth

Cost

Coffee and tea on arrival, morning tea and lunch will be provided

Dress Code

$88 (inclusive of GST) per person

Who Can Attend

Business attire (some men wear a suit, however a jacket and dress shirt is appropriate as well)
This is an exclusive RCCIWA member event.

Program

Any representative of our members – committee members, office bearers and/or employed personnel are welcome.

The day comprises of six to eight Members of Parliament discussing their focus for regional business communities and offer an opportunity for members to raise any issues of importance through a Q&A session. The speaker and their Senior Policy Advisers generally follow up on any questions not addressed during the allocated time. We aim to ask constructive state wide regional questions to be able to work on a collaborative solution. We don't have the speaker line up confirmed at this stage, however we have invited the Premier, Ministers with portfolios key to our members, and representatives from The Opposition.

Parking

There is ticketed parking on Harvest Terrace and Parliament Place and limited free parking is available in the car park of Parliament House. There is also a free Cat Bus service which goes up the Terrace and has a stop about 250 metres from Parliament House if you are staying at the Ibis Styles.
